MEDIA ADVISORY

Concert to Honor the Victims & Heroes of the Sept. 11 Attacks

FALLS CHURCH, VA. – The Falls Church Concert Band has announced its second annual concert to honor the victims and heroes of the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. The 45-member volunteer band will present this year's musical tribute on Tuesday, Sept. 11, 2007 at 7:30 p.m. at the Annandale United Methodist Church located at 6935 Columbia Pike in Annandale, Va. Free admission.

Highlights of the concert include a composition for band and chorus entitled "Now Come the Names," composed by Band Director Adam Levowitz. Other features include "Amazing Grace" on bagpipe; an expanded version of the national anthem, arranged by Levowitz; and the music of American composers George Gershwin and Duke Ellington.

The Falls Church Concert Band is a community band open to musicians with a variety of skills and interests. Sponsored by the City of Falls Church Recreation & Parks Division, the band performs a mixture of marches, classical pieces, Broadway show medleys, regional tunes, and American classics.
